

Summer Holiday Resources

For any parents or carers who wish for their children to continue with some home learning for maths over the summer holidays, the following websites and resources may be helpful:

- White Rose Maths Home Learning

<https://whiterosemaths.com/homelearning/>

All of the topics taught for home learning this term can be accessed from the White Rose Maths website; this may be useful for consolidating knowledge of specific topics.

- Parent Workbooks
