

English (speaking, listening, reading & writing):

Reading 'The Indian in the Cupboard' and Native American tales from 'The Enchanted Moccasins and other Stories'. Writing postcards, emails, itineraries, first person narrative and legends.

RE

Exploring the following topics:

- Why do Christians still pray the Lord's Prayer?
- How can artists help us understand Christmas?

PE Monday (BOTH CLASSES

PERU - TUESDAY, BRAZIL - WEDNESDAY

- OAA
- Football

Ideas for helping at home:

- English and Maths homework is set on a Friday and is due on the following Wednesday. One piece will be set on Teams.
- Each child should read at home for a minimum of 20 mins per day at home and note in the daily contact book.
- Spelling and times tables- practise each for 10 mins per night. There is a weekly 2Do spelling quiz on Purple Mash

Science

- Electricity and circuits, including looking at conductors and insulators

The Hook:

Using the orienteering course to locate US states. Inviting Mr Avenell to talk about a road trip in the US.

Outcome:

To plan an itinerary for a family wishing to visit several US states and see some landmarks on a budget.

Personal, social, health & economic education

Healthy Me - friendship, peer pressure and being assertive

Computing:

- Algorithms
- Writing and sending emails
- Using websites safely

Mathematics:

- Length and perimeter
- Multiplying and dividing by 10, 100
- Multiplication and division facts for 6, 7 and 9 times tables.

French:

- Francophone countries
- Means of transportation

Art:

- New York skyline
- Making dream catchers
- Making journey sticks

Spirituality:

- Reflecting how and why people have beliefs
- Awe and wonder about the natural world with a focus on the USA

Autumn Term Two Year 4 Road Trip USA

Design Technology

- Making models of iconic US objects or landmarks
- Making Iroquois longhouses
- Designing and making totem poles

Music

- Listening to and appreciating traditional Native American music.

Curriculum Drivers

Resilience

Resilience will be taught throughout the curriculum including through the redrafting and editing of work.

Children will problem solve, investigate and develop reasoning skills.

Learn new skills through working in groups to produce an itinerary for a trip.

Using zones of regulation strategies.

Environment

Looking after our environment.

Using the school environment as a learning tool, including using the orienteering course.

Diversity

Studying Native American culture.

Investigating famous USA people from a variety of different backgrounds who influenced the past and the present