Good Behaviour

Each day you follow the BARTS golden rules will be recorded as a 'merit day'.

For every 25 merit days you will be awarded a BARTS certificate.

Staff can choose to reward your good behaviour with an extra merit.

Choice

Warning

You will be asked to make a choice about whether to continue with your behaviour if you are not following the BARTS golden rules.

If you continue with your behaviour, you will be given a warning. A 'W' will be recorded on the behaviour chart. You will lose 5 minutes of golden time.

If you receive 3 warnings in one week you will have to see your class teacher at break or lunch time.

If you receive more than 3 warnings in a week, you will have to see your phase leader at break or lunch time.

Cloud

If you have been given 3 warnings, you will see your class teacher. 'C' will be recorded on the behaviour chart and you will lose all of your golden time.

You must fill in a behaviour reflection form with your class teacher at break or lunch time.

Rain Cloud

You will have to see your phase leader automatically if you do any of the following:

- Swearing
- Stealing
- Damage to property
- Dangerous behaviour such as kicking, pushing or fighting, throwing items
- Repeated refusal to follow instructions from staff

You will lose all of your golden time and must fill in a behaviour reflection form with your phase leader. 'R' will be recorded on the behaviour chart.

1 'R' level in a term – your phase leader will inform your parents

Thunder Cloud

If you receive a second 'R' level in the same term, you will have to see the Head teacher/ Deputy Head teacher. 'T' will be recorded on the behaviour chart and you will miss the class reward afternoon.

1 'T' level in a term – the Deputy Head Teacher or Head Teacher will inform your parents and arrange to meet them to discuss your behaviour.
